About Us

Satyamani® Stationers have been professional suppliers of corporate stationery for over a decade. We have inculcated the culture of providing 100 % customer satisfaction through various aspects and service tools. Satyamani® is dedicated towards adding value and substance to its clients businesses through offering superlative and completely customized products & services.

Satyamani® Stationers is a single source supplier offering over 1000 Items including office supplies, computer & printer supplies as well as janitorial supplies. To meet the needs of both small and large companies and to facilitate the buying process we provide greater convenience and time efficiency by offering several ways to place order including phone, post and e-mail.

"Our aim is to be the India's leading professional supplier of Total Office Solutions. Such a goal will be impossible to achieve without a solid platform of satisfied customers buying from us."

A company, consisting of dedicated people who are committed to outlive customer expectations, motivated professionals who aim to achieve excellence through dedicated teamwork who attend every client request with zeal. We take pride in our ability to deliver efficient services at affordable prices.

As an active member of Delhi Stationers Association (DSA) we are committed to supply good quality products & services at a competitive consistent price. This is reinforced further through our association with the leading office MNC's groups. This strategic position combined with the growing use of new technologies makes us a realistic service partner for any organization - large or small.

Although currently supplying in New Delhi and NCR, we have the support the support & flexibility to service your office needs wherever you are.

Business Practices

We have a strong tradition of providing the highest level of service in our industry. Our future depends on our ability to exceed our client's expectations. We accomplish this with a totally integrated, cost effective system to procure, distribute, manage, and control materials supply expenditure.

With our highly qualified personnel, cost competitive policy, and "client" based philosophy, we are able to achieve our goal of unsurpassed service. In addition, we are committed to personalized service for every one of our customers, from small offices to large corporations.

Our company's products portfolio includes technology products, such as printer cartridges; traditional office products, such as writing instruments, paper products, organizers, calendars, and general office accessories; and janitorial/sanitation Products.

We further aim to strengthen our working capabilities and utilizing our work force to the best possible extents so that each and every requirement and task is completed at the desired time and with full efficiency and professionalism.

flexible solutions for your business needs

On Time Delivery

SATYAMANI® provides their 'further a field' customers a next day delivery service. This helps improve the efficiency of our distribution function and thus allow us to develop more customer-focused services for the future.

To add to all these services, as an added advantage, we also provide 24 hours order placement system which always ensures our clients to get their requirements at any time of need.....be it 10 am or 4 am we accept orders and process them at the earliest.

We cater to cent percent customer satisfaction, any defects in the supplied goods are corrected or the respective goods are replaced within a notice of 24 hrs of the defect...as we Guarantee you the best and always, our goods are guarded with a strong benefit of GUARANTY not WARANTY....

That's the way we provide that extra touch to our services....

Each and every good, before dispatched is monitored and packed, just to make sure that our client enjoys the product desired... and no damaged or defected goods are shipped. This is an essential part of our entire process, which holds an equal gravity as other checks do.

Value Added Services

Further to our already broad portfolio, we provide a number of specialist products and services. They really add to the personal touch we like to provide at SATYAMANI®.

Personal & Corporate Gift Ideas

We stock a huge range of gift ideas - starting with Writing Instruments; the choice doesn't stop there - Game Compendiums, Painting & Drawing Sets & Accessories and Personal Organizers.

Gems & Crystals for Gifts & Personal Use

Our affiliate, Satyamani® Healing holds a collection of more than 500 types of gems & crystals. The collection varies from semi precious stones, bracelets, ring stones and much more.

Quality-The Ultimate Principle

We believe in the concept of TOTAL QUALITY MANAGEMENT (TQM), and strongly look and work towards providing the best quality and maintaining the best quality standard of each and every product.

To achieve high levels of quality, we have direct interface with manufacturers of leading brands which consequently prohibits a third party interface and thus helps us get the original and genuine goods. Compromising with quality is one such thing SATYAMANI® has never favoured as we are pledged to strive for the best and give the best.

The Unmatched price Concept

With the prices of the markets and majority of goods going up, we Guarantee you the most competitive prices in the market without compromising even a single bit with the quality of the goods supplied as we have a direct interface with the manufacturers of the leading goods and services which allows us to maintain standards at best prices.

The price slab offered by us is the most challenged in the market and will surely fulfill each and need of our each and every client, be it retail or in bulk. As, we know how to balance the delicate curve of price rise and demand.

Target Sectors

Our existing client base includes leading Multi National Companies (MNC's), which further adds and balances our market value in the field of corporate stationery suppliers. We currently supply stationery to over 15 companies. Our ever-increasing list of perspective clients belong to the following sectors....

- Public Sector
- Healthcare
- Aviation
- Hospitality
- Manufacturing
- Automobiles
